Old Halls Alumni Association

Annual Dinner
The Old Halls Alumni Association held its Annual Dinner in November 2002. 160 Old Hallites and friends joined the Association's Annual Dinner in November, with special guests including Vice-Chancellor Professor Lap-Chee Tse and Director of Broadcasting Mr. Vincent Kwok. A pre-dinner visit to the newly-renovated Eliot Hall added a fine touch to the evening. A new recording of the Hall Song was played for the first time.

Hong Kong's First Honorary Senior Counsel

A teacher affects eternity; one can never tell where the teacher’s influence stops.

Chief Justice Andrew Li,
at the Ceremony for the Admission of New Senior Counsels

Professor Johannes Chan 董建華 (LLB 1981; PCLL 1982), Dean of the Faculty of Law and a well-known academic and barrister in the area of human rights, constitutional and administrative law, was appointed as the first Honorary Senior Counsel in Hong Kong. This recognition is well established in the United Kingdom and honours distinguished contributions made by eminent academics in the field of law to legal scholarship and the legal community as a whole.

Professor Chan's appointment is unprecedented in Hong Kong. He believes that his appointment, apart from being a personal honour, will strengthen the ties and cooperation between academia and the legal profession. This co-operation is essential to maintaining by excellence in legal education;
