A New Tradition at HKU
The words and deeds of the historical giant continue to inspire

At the 137th anniversary of his birth on November 12, 2003, the statue of Dr Sun was installed at the heart of the HKU campus, the Lily Pond. A series of lectures and exhibitions were also organised in association with this memorable occasion.

This marks the beginning of a tradition, as the words and deeds of the historical giant continue to inspire.

Mr Raymond K C Mak, Students' Union President, represented the students to play host of the unveiling ceremony.
