Citizenship education calls for the education of knowledge, skills and values that help the young to become informed and responsible citizens. Various cross-national studies have been carried out. However, there has been little coverage on teachers — obviously key figures in citizenship education. This book asks two fundamental questions: "What do teachers see as important in citizenship education? How do these perceptions facilitate or hinder the preparation of good citizens?"

Title
Education for Social Citizenship — Perceptions of Teachers in the USA, Australia, England, Russia and China

Author
Lee Wong-on (BA 1977; PhD 2002), PhD 2002, BSocSc 1978; is a statutory body of the University of Hong Kong comprising all graduates and teachers.
