A student introduced the conceptual models of the Centennial Campus to alumni and guests.

Members of the HKU Family participated in a torch relay, which symbolises the passing of great traditions from one generation to another.

Starr Hall students took some cakes to share with the elderly in Western District.

Members of the HKU Family participated in a torch relay, which symbolises the passing of great traditions from one generation to another.

On March 25, more than 400 alumni, staff, students and friends joined the 95th anniversary party at Loke Yew Hall.

www.hku.hk/u95to100