Ready for HKU 100

Alumni in Shanghai are enthusiastic about the HKU Centenary Celebrations. They are ready to organise social service activities in Shanghai to support SERVICE 100 and join the Gala Dinner on December 18 in Hong Kong.

Tips for Investing in 2011

Talk by Dr Horace Chan 陳孟東 (BA(ArchStud) 1971) (2nd row, 4th left), CEO of Standard Financial Holding, on “2011 Investment Outlook”. Horace has spent most of his career in property development in Hong Kong, Canada and on the Chinese Mainland. This enables him to gain a profound understanding of and insight into Mainland government policies and market sentiment.

The last few months saw the alumni busy with its activities. We hosted a dinner at the Hong Kong Club on January 3, 2011 in honour of U-Hallites Leong Che-hung (MBBS 1962; Hon DSc 2006), who has just been awarded the Grand Bauhinia Medal, and John Chan Cho-chak (BA 1964; DipManStud 1971; Hon DSocSc 2011), who was just awarded a Doctor of Social Sciences honoris causa by HKUST. Their immense contributions and unselfish devotion to voluntary public services afford good examples for all U-Hallites. Congratulations again!

On January 10, we held a memorial gathering for our beloved former warden of the 60s to 70s and good friend, John Llewellyn, MBE, who passed away on December 10, 2010 at the ripe age of 95. Rest in peace, we will miss you fondly forever, John.

We had our customary Sports Day on January 16. Marathon soccer, followed by curry and high soup lunch – a guys’ meet, can’t get better than this.

At its 184th Congregation on March 22, the University conferred a Doctor of Social Sciences honoris causa to John Chan Cho-chak and a Doctor of Science honoris causa to John Leong Chi-yan (MBBS 1965; Hon DSc 2011). Congratulations to those outstanding U-Hallites!

More fellowship gatherings on the horizon. HKU Reunion at the Races on June 5, 2011 and, of course, the great Annual General Meeting at the Chinese Club on July 8, 2011. U-Hallites mark your diaries and make reservations by e-mail now. Visit our website at www.uhall.com.hk.

More than a hundred Ricci boys witnessed the unveiling of the bronze statue of Father Matteo Ricci on December 18, 2010, which marked the celebration of the 400th anniversary of the passing of Father Ricci, a forerunner of international exchanges and “The Master from the West”.

The bronze statue, located in Ricci Hall, is one of the three created by Coke Wong Ka-long, a contemporary sculptor and a local artist who graduated from the Guangzhou Academy of Fine Arts with a major in sculpture. Every statue of Matteo Ricci, which took some six months to complete, is a combination of eastern and western culture, showing Ricci like a kind Chinese scholar dressed in Chinese-style clothes.

The first statue was unveiled at Fu Jen Catholic University, Taiwan on April 19, 2010 by Professor Bernard Li, President of Fu Jen Catholic University 輔仁大學黎建球校長 and Fr Louis Gendron S J, Jesuit Provincial 省會長唐德隆神父.

The second one is in Macau and stands at the Ruins of St Paul’s, a former Catholic church that is now a UNESCO world heritage site, and was unveiled on August 7, 2010, 428 years to the day that Father Ricci first arrived in Macau and reached Chinese soil. The unveiling was officiated by Chui Sai-on, Chief Executive of Macau SAR.

The third and final one is housed in Ricci Hall. All are welcome to “visit” Father Ricci!

Riccians who would like to receive updates of Ricci Hall and/or RHOBA may contact Mr Wong Wan-man (BSW 1991; MBA 2010) at 90351480 or 25469201, wongwm@graduate.hku.hk
