Convocation Speech

On Governance

The Hon Lam Woon-kwong 林煥光 (BSocSc 1974; MBuddStud 2007)
Convenor of the Non-Official Members of the Executive Council

To succeed in the political jungle, one must possess the characteristics of two key animals in Aesop’s Fables: the heart and courage of a lion, plus the canniness of a fox.

To govern prudently:
- “Like Frying a Small Fish”
- Look for the Unpalatable Ideas
- Keep Options Open
- Leave Room for Compromise
- Mind the Details
- Set Your Own Deadline
- Take it Seriously

An Extraordinary General Meeting was held on March 2, 2015 to consider and approve by resolution a set of proposed amendments to the Constitution and Rules of Convocation. Revised version is available on Convocation website.
Investment Positioning and Diversification in a Changing Economic Environment

David Lui 雷賢達 Vice Chairman
Bank of Communications Schroder Fund Management Co. Ltd.

"Many people think MPF is supposed to take care of you after retirement, but I am not sure. There will be exceptions, such as that small percentage of people who have the investment knowledge to choose the right market at the right time. They may do well with their MPF.

The government should make provision for our retirement, one that is not only based on the MPF.”
