About the Speaker

Mr K C Kwong, GBS, JP, graduated from the University of Hong Kong in 1972. He joined the Hong Kong Civil Service after graduation and has served in a wide variety of posts in the Hong Kong Government. His last two postings in the Government, before he left the Civil Service in 2000, were as the Secretary for the Treasury and the Secretary for Information Technology and Broadcasting. He then joined the Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Ltd and served as its Chief Executive Officer between 2000 and 2003. Thereafter, he has worked as a top manager in the private sector until his recent retirement in July 2006. As a veteran civil servant and top manager, Mr. Kwong would share his valuable experience and insight with us at the luncheon talk.
