

Contents

A Note from the Chairman

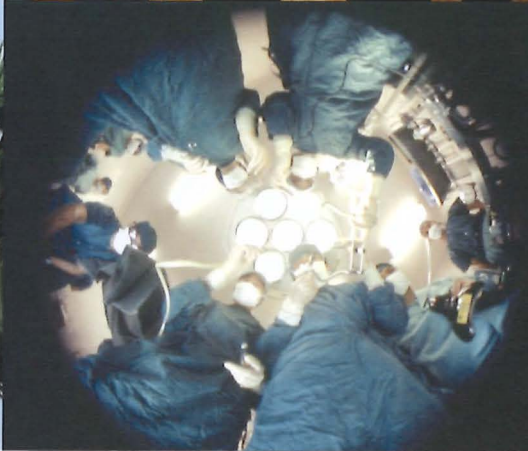

Overview 1

Chapter 1	The Changing Profiles	20
Chapter 2	The Pre-War Pioneers	38
Chapter 3	Making Medical History	98
Chapter 4	In the Eyes of the Law	120
Chapter 5	Towards Sustainability	140
Chapter 6	Sailing through Economic Tides	172
Chapter 7	Servants of the People	202
Chapter 8	From Elite to the Mass	220
Chapter 9	Opportunities, Rights and Care	248
Chapter 10	Surfing the Political Arena	266
Chapter 11	Creating a Culture	294
	In lieu of a conclusion	338
	Epilogue	344
	Selected References	348
	Acknowledgements	349

Mace

The mace, which is made of gilt silver inlaid with green and rose jade, is carried in University processions as a symbol of the Chancellor's authority.

Arranged by: Chung Lam

Lugard Hall Song

2/4

5 43 | 2 22 | 1 23 5̣. 5̣ 2̣ 0 | 5 43 | 6 52 |
 Come, come and sing, Lugard-ite, that's our name; With high-on-dea-vours we

454 343 | 2 0 | 2 2 1 2 | 3 4 5 | 2 3 4 | 3 2 1 |
 go for know and fame; To this end-on-ward we march, there's no cause, us to dread,

2 2 1 2 | 3 4 5 | 1 4 5 6 . 7 | 6 0 | 5 4 3 | 2 3 2 |
 Come and sing a cheery song, in courage we'll tread! Straight throu' our way, it is

1 2 3 | 5̣. 5̣ 2̣ 0 | 5 4 3 | 6 5 2 | 4 5 4 3 4 3 | 2 0 |
 joy - o-us and free; Be - hold a - head there is VIC - TOR - Y !

2 2 1 2 | 3 4 5 | 2 3 4 | 3 2 1 | 2 2 1 2 | 3 4 5 |
 Men of Lugard lift our voice, sing it loud, sing it right, Show to all that here is strength,

7 | 1 2 3 | 1 0 |
 here is fire and light.

