Spring Dinner 2005

Spring Dinner was held at Times Square Dynasty Restaurant in Richmond Hill on February 27th. Around 100 alumni, students and friends participated in this celebration of Chinese tradition. The warmth of getting together was well blended with the excitement of lucky draw and knowledge shared by our speakers.

Dr. Bill Stephens, Deputy Director, and Dr. Albert Yeung, Instructor Research and Evaluation, of Ontario Police College were invited as our guest speakers. It was an informative presentation on police training, changing demographics in GTA and the opportunities of a career in policing for visible minorities.

Sylvia Kim and Dianne Oliphant, exchange students to Hong Kong and OCDA representatives gave short speeches on their experiences. HKU mentees also reminded us of those good old days with the university cheers.

News from Hong Kong University

Our Alma Mater has received a pledge of HK$ 1 billion dollars (US$ 128 million dollars) from Li Ka Shing Foundation for the development of the university. The benefaction will help develop the role of HKU as a key player of China's economic growth and its global dealings.

A Profile of Mrs. Peggy Sum

As the first Chinese woman serving one of the most senior positions at Canada's top banking institution, Peggy has served the Association for over 10 years, first as Director and currently as Advisor.

Peggy has spent 25 years on her career with Bank of Montreal and became Senior Vice President, Asian Markets in 2000. Prior to this, she had worked with Bausch & Lomb in Canada, John D. Hutchison and some internationally renowned advertising agencies in Hong Kong.

Peggy has a passion for public service. She was a Trustee for Orthopaedic & Arthritic Hospital, Co-Chair for Yee Hong Capital Campaign Corporate Division and served on the Advisory Boards of a number of Asian community organizations. Currently she is a Trustee in the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Young Canadians Challenge Ontario Council.

Peggy is married with two children, Karen and Adrienne. Her husband, Bob, is also an active member of the Association.
